A Settlement has been reached with Bank of America, N.A (“BANA”) in a class action lawsuit alleging certain wire transfer fees on incoming payments into consumer checking and savings accounts (“Incoming Wire Transfer Fees”) should not have been assessed from March 8, 2019, through August 31, 2023.

You may be a member of the Settlement Class in Aseltine v. Bank of America, N.A., in which the Plaintiff, Aaron Aseltine, alleges BANA improperly assessed and collected Incoming Wire Transfer Fees on accounts opened on or before August 31, 2012. BANA maintains it did nothing wrong and that its contract with Accountholders permitted the fees charged but has agreed to settle the lawsuit to avoid the cost, delay, and uncertainty of litigation. The Court has not decided which side is right.

Who is included? BANA records indicate that you are a “Settlement Class member” in this Settlement because you are in the following Settlement Class: All United States Accountholders of BANA consumer checking and/or savings accounts opened on or before August 31, 2012, who, during the Class Period, paid and were not refunded an Incoming Wire Transfer Fee.

What does the Settlement provide? BANA will create a $21,000,000.00 Settlement Fund. After deducting Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, a Service Award to the Class Representative, and the Settlement Administration Costs, the Net Settlement Fund will be divided pro rata among all Settlement Class Members.

What are my options? If you do nothing and the Settlement is approved and becomes final, you will automatically receive a Settlement Class Member Payment, either by credit or check, and your rights will be affected. If you do not want to be legally bound by the Settlement or receive a Settlement Class Member Payment, you must opt-out of the Settlement by _____, 2024. Unless you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not be able to sue or continue to sue BANA for any claim made in this lawsuit or released by the Settlement Agreement. If you stay in the Settlement (and do not opt-out), you may object to it by _____, 2024.

The Court’s Final Approval Hearing. The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing on _____, 2024. At this hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve: (1) the Settlement; (2) Class Counsel’s request for attorneys’ fees (up to one-third of the Settlement Fund) and litigation costs; and (3) a Service Award of up to $5,000.00 for the Class Representative. You or your lawyer may appear at the hearing at your own expense, but you do not have to.
