NOTICE OF PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

Chaplin et al. v. Tyler Technologies, Inc., et al., Case No. 1:23-cv-423

A settlement has been proposed in a class action lawsuit against Tyler Technologies, Inc. ("Tyler"). The settlement will pay claims to individuals who experienced a wrongful arrest or delayed release from pretrial detention. The U.S. District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina authorized this notice. Before any money is paid, the Court will have a hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement.

Who is included? For precise class definitions and exclusions, please refer to the Settlement Agreement on the website noted below. Overdetention Class: anyone subjected to pretrial detention in a North Carolina criminal detention facility who, on or after February 13, 2023, was released from pretrial detention more than 6 hours after satisfying all conditions for release. Wrongful Arrest Class: anyone arrested in North Carolina on or after July 22, 2022, pursuant to a warrant for arrest or order for arrest, who was detained or processed into a detention or processing facility or jail prior to being released, and whose arrest or detention resulted from an error in software licensed by Tyler.

What does the settlement provide? Tyler agrees to pay individuals who submit claims by the deadline and whose claims qualify for compensation. If you are a member of the Wrongful Arrest Settlement Class, you will receive payment for each wrongful arrest you experienced during the set time period. If you are a member of the Overdetention Settlement Class, for each overdetention you experienced during the set time period, you will receive payment based on the length of your overdetention. All payments in the settlement are subject to an individual cap of $5,000.00 and a total aggregate cap of $1.5 million (the "Aggregate Cap"). If the amount of compensation due for all valid claims exceeds the Aggregate Cap, each valid claim will be reduced pro rata.

How do you ask for a payment? A detailed notice and claim form package contain everything you need. Visit the website or call the number below to obtain a claim form and additional information. You must submit a claim by the deadline to qualify for payment.

What are your other options? If you don't want to be legally bound by the settlement, you must exclude yourself by DATE, or you will not be able to sue, or continue to sue, Tyler about the legal claims in this case. If you exclude yourself, you cannot get money from this settlement. If you stay in the settlement, you may object by DATE. The detailed notice explains how to exclude yourself or object.

The Court will hold a hearing on DATE to consider whether to approve the settlement and a request by the lawyers representing all Class Members for attorneys' fees and expenses in the amount of $503,500. The fees and expenses will not reduce the amount of compensation paid for valid claims. You may ask to appear at the hearing, but you don't have to.
