NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

Butler v. Fairmont Federal Credit Union, Case No. 1:25-cv-00094-TSK
United States District Court for the Northern District of West Virginia

Records indicate you are eligible for benefits from a class action settlement regarding the Fairmont Federal Credit Union Data Incident in 2023.

A Court authorized this Notice. You are not being sued. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

Name: <<First Name>> <<Last Name>>

Class Member ID: <<RefNum>>

A Settlement has been reached with Fairmont Federal Credit Union (the “Defendant” or “FFCU”) in a class action lawsuit about a data security incident that occurred between September 30, 2023 and October 18, 2023 (the “Data Incident”). During the Data Incident, unauthorized actors allegedly accessed Settlement Class Members’ Private Information, including personally identifiable information and protected health information, through the Defendant’s IT systems. The Plaintiffs allege claims of negligence, negligence per se, breach of implied contract, and breach of fiduciary duty. The Defendant denies all allegations and any wrongdoing.

Am I included? You are receiving this Notice because the Defendant’s records show you are included in the Settlement Class. The Settlement Class consists of all individuals in the United States whose Private Information was potentially impacted in the data security incident publicly disclosed by the Defendant on or about April 30, 2025 (“Data Incident”).

What does the Settlement provide? Under the proposed Settlement, the Defendant will pay $1,783,857.64 into a Settlement Fund to resolve the Litigation. The Settlement Fund will provide benefits to Settlement Class Members who submit Valid Claims. Benefits include: (i) reimbursement for documented out-of-pocket losses and expenses (up to $7,500 per person); (ii) reimbursement for up to four (4) hours of time spent remediating issues related to the Data Incident (at $35/hour, up to $140); (iii) an alternative cash payment (up to $150) instead of (i) and (ii) subject to pro rata adjustment; and (iv) three (3) years of credit monitoring and identity restoration services. The Settlement Fund will also pay for administration costs, attorneys’ fees and costs, and Service Awards. In addition, FFCU has agreed to provide certain cybersecurity enhancements for five (5) years.

How do I get Settlement Benefits? You must submit a Claim Form by 11:59 p.m. ET online at [www.\[website\].com](http://www.[website].com) by mail postmarked by Month XX, 202X. Claim Forms are available on the Settlement Website or by calling (XXX) XXX-XXXX.

What are my other options? If you do nothing, you will not receive any Settlement Benefits, you will remain a member of the Settlement Class, and you will give up your rights to sue the Defendant for the claims resolved by this Settlement. If you do not want any Settlement Benefits but you want to keep your right to sue the Defendant for the claims resolved by this Settlement, you must exclude yourself from the Settlement Class (called “opting out”). If you do not opt out, you may object to the Settlement and ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing. The Opt-Out and Objection Date is Month XX, 202X.

The Court’s Final Approval Hearing. The Court will hold a hearing on Month XX, 202X at XX:00 a.m./p.m. ET to decide whether to approve the Settlement, attorneys’ fees of up to one-third of the Settlement Fund ($594,599.74), plus reimbursement of documented costs and expenses, and Service Awards for each of the Class Representatives of up to $5,000, for each of the State Court Plaintiffs of up to $3,500, and for each of the Tag-Along Plaintiffs of up to $1,000. You or your lawyer may attend the hearing at your own expense.
