IV. CLAIMS FOR OUT-OF-POCKET LOSSES

If you spent money to deal with fraud or identity theft that you reasonably believe was “fairly traceable” to the Data Breach or spent money to protect yourself from future harm as a result of the Data Breach, then you can submit a claim for reimbursement. Out-of-Pocket Losses that are eligible for reimbursement may include, without limitation, the following:

- Unreimbursed costs, expenses, losses, or charges incurred as a result of identity theft or identity fraud, falsified tax returns, or other alleged misuse of a Settlement Class Member’s personal information;
- Costs incurred on or after October 16, 2023, associated with placing or removing a credit freeze on a Settlement Class Member’s credit file with any credit reporting agency;
- Other miscellaneous expenses incurred on or after October 16, 2023, related to any Out-of-Pocket Loss such as notary, fax, postage, copying, mileage, and long-distance telephone charges;
- Costs of credit reports, credit monitoring, or other products related to detection or remediation of identity theft incurred on or after October 16, 2023, through the date of the Settlement Class Member’s claim submission.

This list provides examples only, and other losses or costs that you reasonably believe are “fairly traceable” to the Data Breach may also be eligible for reimbursement.

In assessing what qualifies as “fairly traceable,” the Settlement Administrator will consider (1) the timing of the loss, including whether the loss occurred on or after October 16, 2023, through the date of your Claim Form submission; (2) whether the loss involved the possible misuse of the type of personal information compromised in the Data Breach; (3) whether the personal information compromised in the Data Breach that is related to you is of the type that was possibly misused; (4) your explanation as to how the loss is fairly traceable to the Data Breach; (5) the nature of the loss, including whether the loss was reasonably incurred as a result of the Data Breach; and (6) any other factor that the Settlement Administrator considers to be relevant.

Settlement Class Members must submit “Reasonable Documentation” supporting your claim. This includes, but is not limited to credit card statements, bank statements, invoices, telephone records, and receipts. Except as expressly provided in this notice, personal certifications, declarations, or affidavits from the claimant do not constitute “Reasonable Documentation” but may be included to provide clarification, context or support for other submitted “Reasonable Documentation.” The Settlement Administrator shall have the sole discretion and authority to determine whether claimed Out-of-Pocket Losses are valid and “fairly traceable” to the Data Breach. Only valid claims will be paid.
