PREAMBLE

This Settlement Agreement and Release (the “Agreement”) is entered into by and among plaintiffs Tamela Hampton (“Hampton”), Beverly Macon (“Macon”), and Savannah Garner (“Garner,” together with Hampton, and Macon, “Named Plaintiffs”) and all those on whose behalf they are prosecuting this action (each of them a “Plaintiff” and all of them “Plaintiffs”), on the one hand, and defendant Redstone Federal Credit Union (“Defendant”), on the other hand, as of the date last executed below. All references in this Agreement to a “Party” or the “Parties” shall refer to a party or the parties to this Agreement.

RECITALS

A. On May 5, 2020, former plaintiff Heather Leslie (“Leslie”) filed a putative class action complaint against Defendant (“Leslie Complaint”) in the United States District Court, Northern District of Alabama, entitled Heather Leslie v. Redstone Federal Credit Union, Case No. 5:20-CV-00629-LCB (the “Leslie Action”).

B. July 17, 2020, Defendant filed a motion to dismiss the Leslie Complaint. On March 22, 2021, the Court denied Defendant’s motion to dismiss. On April 13, 2021, Defendant filed an answer to the Leslie Complaint, denying all liability to Plaintiffs.

C. On December 3, 2021, Defendant filed a motion to dismiss, motion for summary judgment, and motion to stay and extend deadlines. On December 10, 2021, Leslie filed a motion for leave to amend the Leslie Complaint. On March 24, 2022, the Court denied Defendant’s motion for summary judgment as moot and granted Leslie’s motion for leave to file an amended complaint.

D. On April 1, 2022, Leslie and Plaintiffs Dunn, Hampton, and Beasley filed an amended complaint (“Amended Leslie Complaint”). The Amended Leslie Complaint alleges claims on behalf of a proposed class for breach of contract and violation of Regulation E of the Electronic Fund Transfer Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1693 et seq. (“EFTA”). On April 15, 2022, Defendant filed an answer to the Amended Leslie Complaint, denying all liability to Plaintiffs.

E. On September 16, 2022, Defendant filed a motion for summary judgment as to Leslie’s individual claims. On October 7, 2022, the parties filed a stipulation of dismissal with prejudice as to Leslie’s claims only.

F. On October 6, 2022, Plaintiff filed a motion for class certification. In the motion for class certification, Plaintiff proposed that Tamela Hampton be appointed as the class representative for the proposed class. Plaintiff did not move for the appointment of Heather Leslie, Jeanine Dunn, and Jessie Beasley.

G. On December 20, 2021, Plaintiffs Macon and Garner filed a putative class action complaint against Defendant (“Macon Complaint”) in the United States District Court, Northern District of Alabama, entitled Beverly Macon et al. v. Redstone Federal Credit Union, Case No. 5:21-CV-01682-LCB (the “Macon Action” and together with the Leslie Action, the “Actions”). The Macon Complaint alleges a claim on behalf of a proposed class for breach of contract.

H. On March 7, 2022, Defendant filed a motion to compel arbitration and motion to dismiss the Macon Complaint. On October 28, 2022, the Court granted Defendant's motion to compel arbitration and directed the parties to arbitrate the Macon Action.

I. On January 9, 2023, the parties participated in an all-day mediation of the Actions before mediator Phillip E. Adams, Jr. The Actions did not settle at the mediation, but further negotiations by the parties resulted in the settlement reflected in this Agreement.

J. Defendant has entered into this Agreement to resolve any and all controversies and disputes arising out of or relating to the allegations made in the Actions, and to avoid the burden, risk, uncertainty, expense, and disruption to its business operations associated with further litigation. Defendant does not in any way acknowledge, admit to or concede any of the allegations made in the Actions, and expressly disclaims and denies any fault or liability, or any charges of wrongdoing that have been or could have been asserted in the Actions. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be used or construed as an admission of liability and this Agreement shall not be offered or received in evidence in any action or proceeding in any court or other forum as an admission or concession of liability or wrongdoing of any nature or for any other purpose other than to enforce the terms of this Agreement.

K. Named Plaintiffs have entered into this Agreement to liquidate and recover on the claims asserted in the Actions, and to avoid the risk, delay, and uncertainty of continued litigation. Named Plaintiffs do not in any way concede the claims alleged in the Actions lack merit or are subject to any defenses.

(d) The Settlement Administrator also shall be responsible for timely and properly filing all tax returns necessary or advisable, if any, with respect to the Settlement Fund. Except as provided herein, Class Members shall be responsible for their own tax reporting of payments or credits received under the terms of this Agreement.

(e) The Settlement Administrator shall provide the data in its administration database to Defendant's Counsel and/or Class Counsel in response to any written request, including an email request. The Declaration shall set forth the total payments issued to Class Members by the Claims Administrator, the total amount of any checks uncashed and/or returned, and the total amount of money being held by the Claims Administrator.

(h) The Claims Administrator shall establish a website to post the Long Form Notice, the Motion for Preliminary Approval, the Motion for Final Approval, the Amended Complaint and any other documents required to be posted by the Court. The website shall be live at the time the Notice is sent to Class Members.

(i) Pursuant to Section 11, below, the Claims Administrator shall calculate payments from the Settlement Fund and credits required to be issued to Class Members with active accounts based on data provided by Defendant.

(j) The Claims Administrator shall provide the parties with a weekly report setting forth: Notice sent, returned Notices, communications from class members, visits to the settlement website, the total payments issued to Class Members by the Claims Administrator and the total amount of any checks uncashed and/or returned.

(b) Each Class Member who wishes to be excluded from the Settlement Class must submit his or her own personally signed written request for exclusion. A single written request for exclusion submitted on behalf of more than one Class Member will be deemed invalid; provided, however, that an exclusion received from one Potential Class Member will be deemed and construed as a request for exclusion by all persons who are co-members on the same account.

(c) The Settlement Administrator shall maintain a list of Class Members who have excluded themselves and shall provide such list to Defendant's Counsel and Class Counsel at least five (5) days prior to the date Class Counsel is required to file the Motion for Final Approval. The Settlement Administrator shall retain the originals of all Exclusion Letters (including the envelopes with the postmarks). The Settlement Administrator shall provide copies of the Exclusion Letters to Class Counsel, Defendant's Counsel upon receipt and shall provide the original Exclusion Letters upon written request.

(b) To be valid and considered by the Court, the objection must be in writing and sent by first class mail, postage pre-paid, to the Settlement Administrator. The objection must be received on or before the Bar Date to Object, and must include the following information:

(i) The objector's name, address, telephone number, and the contact information for any attorney retained by the objector in connection with the objection or otherwise in connection with this case;

(ii) A statement of the factual and legal basis for each objection and any exhibits the objector wishes the Court to consider in connection with the objection; and

(iii) A statement as to whether the objector intends to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, either in person or through counsel, and, if through counsel, identifying the counsel by name, address, and telephone number. If a Class Member hires his or her own personal attorney to represent him or her in connection with an objection, and if that attorney wishes to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, the attorney must: (a) file a notice of appearance with the Clerk of Court in the Action no later than the Bar Date to Object and (b) serve and deliver a copy of that notice of appearance to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel no later than the Bar Date to Object.

(c) Class Counsel shall file any objections and responsive pleadings at least seven (7) days prior to the Final Approval Hearing Date.

9. MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL AND MOTION FOR FEES, COSTS. At least fifteen (15) days before the Bar Date to Object, Class Counsel shall file a Motion for Final Approval of this Agreement and a Motion for Fees and Costs so that same can be heard on the Final Approval Hearing Date.

10. ENTRY OF JUDGMENT. The Final Approval Order shall constitute the Court's final judgment in this action. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce the terms of the Final Approval Order. The Final Approval Order shall be subject to review and approval by Defendant's Counsel.

11. THE SETTLEMENT FUND AND DISTRIBUTION.

(a) Payments to Class Members. Within fourteen (14) days after the Effective Date, Defendant shall transfer the Settlement Fund to the Settlement Administrator, less the total amount that will be credited to Class Members by Defendant, as provided in subsection 11(d)(iii)(5)(i), below. The Settlement Fund shall be the total amount Defendant is obligated to pay under the terms of this Agreement and includes (a) Class Counsels' fees and costs; (b) costs associated with administering the notice in accordance with Section 5, above; and (c) any fees paid to the Settlement Administrator for services rendered in connection with the administration process. Defendant shall not make any additional or further contributions to the Settlement Fund, even if the total amount of all alleged improper fees charged to the Class Members exceeds the value of the Net Settlement Fund. In the event a Final Approval Order is not issued, or this Agreement is terminated by either party for any reason, including pursuant to Section 14, below, the portion of the Settlement Fund paid to the Settlement Administrator (including accrued interest, if any) less expenses actually incurred by the Settlement Administrator or due and owing to the Settlement Administrator in connection with the settlement provided for herein, shall be refunded to Defendant within two (2) business days.

(b) All funds held by the Settlement Administrator shall be deemed and considered to be in custodia legis of the Court, and shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Court, until distributed pursuant to this Agreement.

(c) All funds held by the Settlement Administrator at any time shall be deemed to be a Qualified Settlement Fund as described in Treasury Regulation §1.468B-1, 26 C.F.R. §1.468B-1.

(d) Payments shall be made from the Settlement Fund as follows:

(i) Plaintiffs' Fees and Costs. Plaintiffs' reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, as determined and approved by the Court, shall be paid from the Settlement Fund twenty four (24) days after the Effective Date. Class Counsel shall apply for an award of attorneys' fees of up to one-third (33.33%) of the Value of the Settlement, plus reimbursement of reasonable litigation costs, to be approved by the Court. Defendant agrees not to oppose an application for attorneys' fees of up to one-third (33.33%) of the Value of the Settlement, but reserves the right to oppose an application for fees in excess of that amount.

(ii) Settlement Administrator's Fees. The Settlement Administrator's fees and costs, including estimated fees and costs to fully implement the terms of this Agreement, as approved by the Court, shall be payable twenty four (24) days after the Effective Date. The Settlement Administrator's fees shall be paid out of the Settlement Fund.

(iii) Potential Service Awards: Subject to Court Approval, Named Plaintiffs may seek Service Awards of up to $10,000.00 each. The right to seek the Service Awards is contingent on controlling law in the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals at the time of the Final Approval Hearing changes to allow for service awards. If permitted, the Service Awards shall be payable twenty four (24) days after the Effective Date. The Service Awards shall be paid to the Named Plaintiffs in addition to the payments provided for in Section 11(d)(iv). The Parties agree that the Court's failure to approve a Service Award, in whole or in part, shall not prevent the Agreement from becoming effective, nor shall it be grounds for termination. Service Awards, if any, shall be paid out of the Settlement Fund.

(iv) Payments to Class Members. Of the $3,700,000 Settlement Fund, $551,487 (15%) is allocated to the Multiple NSF Fee Class, $500,000 (13.5%) is allocated to the Regulation E Class, and $2,648,513 (71.5%) is allocated to the Sufficient Funds Class. Based on this allocation, payments from the Net Settlement Fund to individual Class Members ("Individual Payments") shall be calculated as follows:

(1) Individual Payments to Multiple NSF Fee Class Members = (15% of the Net Settlement Fund/total Multiple NSF Fees) x total Multiple NSF Fees paid by the each Multiple NSF Fee Class Member.

- (2) Individual Payments to Regulation E Class Members = (0.135 of the Net Settlement Fund/total Regulation E Overdraft Fees) x total Regulation E Overdraft Fees paid by each Regulation E Class Member.
- (3) Individual Payments to Sufficient Funds Class Members = (71.5% of the Net Settlement Fund/total Sufficient Funds Overdraft Fees) x total Sufficient Funds Overdraft Fees paid by each Sufficient Funds Class Member.
- (4) Class Members shall not be entitled to recover more for each allegedly improper fee than the actual amount charged for such fee. Thus, if a Class Member was charged $25 for an overdraft fee which is a “Regulation E Overdraft Fee” and is also a “Sufficient Funds Overdraft Fee,” then that Class Member shall only be entitled to recover at most $25 for that fee. Any Individual Payments in excess of the actual amount charged to a Class Member shall be allocated to the Sufficient Funds Class.
- (5) Individual Payments shall be made no later than twenty four (24) days after the Effective Date, as follows:
 - (i) For those Class Members who are members of Defendant at the time of the distribution of the Net Settlement Fund, any checking or savings account they are then maintaining at Defendant, held by them individually, shall be credited in the amount of the Individual Payment they are entitled to receive.
 - (ii) For those Class Members who are not members of Defendant at the time of the distribution of the Net Settlement Fund or at that time do not have an individual account, they shall be sent a check by the Settlement Administrator at the address used to provide Notice, or at such other address as designated by the Class Member. The Class Member shall have one-hundred eighty (180) days after the check is sent to negotiate it. Any checks uncashed after one-hundred eighty (180) days shall be distributed pursuant to Section 12.
- (v) In no event shall any portion of the Settlement Fund revert to Defendant.

12. FINAL REPORT AND CY PRES PAYMENT. Within two hundred forty (240) days after the Effective Date, Class Counsel will submit a Final Report to the Court of the total amount of uncashed checks and residual amounts held by the Settlement Administrator (“Unclaimed Funds”). Subject to Court approval, within thirty (30) days after the Final Report, the total amount of uncashed checks, and residual amounts held by the Settlement Administrator at the time of the Final Report, shall be paid either: (a) as a secondary distribution to Class Members who received credits or cashed settlement payment checks in accordance with the formulas provided for in Section 11(d)(iv) above, or (b) to the cy pres recipients nominated by the Parties. There shall not be a secondary distribution if it is decided by the Parties that it is not economically feasible to do so. The cost of the secondary distribution shall be paid out of the Unclaimed Funds. Subject to approval by the Court, the amount of uncashed checks and residual funds shall be paid in equal parts to United Way of Madison County (Alabama) and to United Way of Rutherford and Cannon Counties (Tennessee).

13. GENERAL RELEASE AND COVENANT NOT TO SUE.

(a) Release. Except as to the rights and obligations provided for under the terms of this Agreement, Named Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and each Class Member, and any of their respective past, present, or future heirs, guardians, assigns, executors, administrators, representatives, agents, attorneys, partners, legatees, predecessors, co-obligors, and/or successors (collective, the “Releasing Persons”) hereby release and forever discharge Defendant, and all of its past, present and future predecessors, successors, parents, subsidiaries, divisions, employees, affiliates, assigns, officers, directors, shareholders, representatives, attorneys, insurers and agents (collectively, the “Defendant Releasees”) from any and all losses, fees, charges, complaints, claims, debts, liabilities, demands, damages, suits, controversies, obligations, costs, expenses, actions, and causes of action of every nature, character, and description, whether based on any law of any kind, whether known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, suspected or unsuspected, foreseen or unforeseen, fixed or contingent, which Releasing Persons now have, own or hold against any of the Defendant Releasees that arise out of and/or relate to the facts and claims alleged in the Actions.

(b) Covenant Not To Sue. Named Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and each of the Class Members, agree that they and the Releasing Persons shall not initiate or prosecute, or cause anyone else to initiate or prosecute any action or proceeding, including an arbitration proceeding, alleging any claim that is the subject of the release in this Section 13 of the Agreement. The Parties agree that the Court shall enter an injunction forever prohibiting the initiation or prosecution of any such claims by any Releasing Person.

(c) The Releasing Persons may hereafter discover facts other than or different from those which they now know or believe to be true with respect to the subject matter of the claims that would be subject of the release in this Section. Nevertheless, Named Plaintiffs and the other Releasing Persons do hereby expressly, fully, finally, and forever settle and release, and each Releasing Person, upon the Effective Date, shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Final Approval Order shall have, fully, finally, and forever settled and released, any and all such released claims, whether or not concealed or hidden, without regard to the subsequent discovery or existence of such different or additional facts.

(d) All Class Members and other Releasing Persons shall be bound by the releases set forth in this Section 13 whether or not they ultimately cash, negotiate or deposit any check mailed for their Individual Payment.

14. CONDITIONS TO SETTLEMENT.

(a) This Agreement shall be subject to and is expressly conditioned on the occurrence of all of the following events:

(i) The Court has entered the Final Approval Order as required by Section 9, above, and all objections by Class Members or regulators, if any, to such Order are overruled, and all appeals taken from such Order are resolved in favor of approval; and

(ii) The Effective Date has occurred.

(b) If all of the conditions specified in Section 14(a) are not met, then this Agreement shall be cancelled and terminated, and shall be void in its entirety.

(c) Defendant shall have the option to terminate this Agreement if five or more of the Class Members opt out. Defendant shall notify Class Counsel and the Court of its intent to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 14(c) within ten (10) business days after the Bar Date to Opt Out, or the option to terminate shall be considered waived.

(d) Defendant shall have the option to terminate this Agreement if the Court awards attorneys' fees or costs to any parties, including but not limited to Class Counsel or any other party, that are to be paid by Defendant separate and apart from the Settlement Fund. Defendant shall notify Class Counsel and the Court of its intent to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 14(d) within ten (10) business days after entry of the order awarding any attorneys' fees or costs separate and apart from the Settlement Fund, or the option to terminate shall be considered waived.

(e) In the event this Agreement is terminated, pursuant to Sections 14(c) or (d) immediately above, or fails to become effective in accordance with Sections 14(a) and/or (b) immediately above, then the parties shall be restored to their respective positions in this case as they existed as of the date of the execution of this Agreement. In such event, the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall have no further force and effect with respect to the parties and shall not be used in this case or in any other action or proceeding for any other purpose, and any order entered by this Court in accordance with the terms of this Agreement shall be treated as vacated, nunc pro tunc. Defendant shall be responsible for any costs and fees incurred by the Settlement Administrator up to the time the Agreement is terminated.

Nor shall any actual waiver or modification constitute a continuing waiver. No waiver or modification shall be binding unless executed in writing by the party making the waiver or modification.

*Redstone Federal Credit UnionNOTICE OF PENDING CLASS ACTION AND PROPOSED SETTLEMENT*READ THIS NOTICE FULLY AND CAREFULLY; THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT
MAY AFFECT YOUR RIGHTS!*IF YOU HAVE OR HAD A CHECKING ACCOUNT WITH REDSTONE FEDERAL CREDIT UNION (“DEFENDANT”) AND YOU WERE CHARGED AN OVERDRAFT
OR NON-SUFFICIENT FUNDS FEE BETWEEN MAY 5, 2014 AND JULY 1, 2021,
THEN YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO A PAYMENT FROM A CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

The United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama has authorized this Notice; it is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

SUMMARY OF YOUR OPTIONS AND THE LEGAL EFFECT OF EACH OPTION
DO NOTHING	If you don't do anything, you will receive a payment from the Settlement Fund so long as you do not opt out of or exclude yourself from the settlement (described in the next box).
EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT; RECEIVE NO PAYMENT BUT RELEASE NO CLAIMS	You can choose to exclude yourself from the settlement or "opt out." This means you choose not to participate in the settlement. You will keep your individual claims against Defendant but you will not receive a payment. If you exclude yourself from the settlement but want to recover against Defendant, you will have to file a separate lawsuit or claim.
OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT	You can file an objection with the Court explaining why you believe the Court should reject the settlement. If your objection is overruled by the Court, then you will receive a payment and you will not be able to sue Defendant for the claims asserted in this litigation. If the Court agrees with your objection, then the settlement may not be approved.

These rights and options – and the deadlines to exercise them – along with the material terms of the settlement are explained in this Notice.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. What are these lawsuit about?

The lawsuits that are being settled are entitled Heather Leslie v. Redstone Federal Credit Union, Case No. 5:20-CV-00629-LCB and Beverly Macon, et al. v. Redstone Federal Credit Union, Case No. 5:21-CV-01682-LCB, both are pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama. Each case is a “class action.” That means that the “Named Plaintiffs,” Tamela Hampton, Beverly Macon, and Savannah Garner, are acting on behalf of current and former members of Defendant who were assessed overdraft and nonsufficient funds (NSF) fees on certain transactions. The Named Plaintiffs have collectively asserted claims for breach of the Account Agreement, breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, and violation of Regulation E of the Electronic Fund Transfers Act.

The Named Plaintiffs’ Complaints are posted on the [website] and contain all of the claims asserted against Defendant. In the Leslie action, the Plaintiffs claim Defendant Redstone breached its own account agreement by assessing overdraft fees based on the available balance in member accounts. They also claim Redstone violated Regulation E of the Electronic Fund Transfer Act by assessing overdraft fees for debit card payments based on available balance in member accounts. In the Macon Action, Plaintiffs claim Redstone breached its own account agreement by charging overdraft and returned item (NSF) fees for overdraft check and ACH payments that were previously rejected due to insufficient funds.

Defendant does not deny that it charged the fees that the Named Plaintiffs are complaining about, but contends that it did so properly and in accordance with the terms of its agreements and applicable law. Defendant therefore denies that its practices give rise to claims for damages by the Named Plaintiffs or any Class Member.

2. Why did I receive this Notice of this lawsuit?

You received this Notice because Defendant’s records indicate that you were charged one or more of the fees that are the subject of these actions. The Court directed that this Notice be sent to all Class Members because each Class Member has a right to know about the proposed settlement and the options available to him or her before the Court decides whether to approve the settlement.

3. Why did the parties settle?

In any lawsuit, there are risks and potential benefits that come with a trial versus settling at an earlier stage. It is the Named Plaintiffs’ and their lawyers’ job to identify when a proposed settlement offer is good enough that it justifies recommending settling the case instead of continuing to trial. In a class action, the Named Plaintiffs’ lawyers, known as Class Counsel, make this recommendation to the Named Plaintiffs. The Named Plaintiffs have the duty to act in the best interests of the class as a whole and, in this case, it is their belief, as well as Class Counsels' opinion, that this settlement is in the best interest of all Class Members.

There is legal uncertainty about whether a judge or a jury will find that Defendant was contractually and otherwise legally obligated not to assess the fees that are being challenged in this case. And even if it was contractually wrong to assess these fees, there is uncertainty about whether the Named Plaintiffs' claims are subject to other defenses that might result in no or less recovery to Class Members. Even if the Named Plaintiffs were to win at trial, there is no assurance that the Class Members would be awarded more than the current settlement amount and it may take years of litigation before any payments would be made. By settling, the Class Members will avoid these and other risks and the delays associated with continued litigation.

While Defendant disputes the allegations in the lawsuit and denies any liability or wrongdoing, it enters into the settlement solely to avoid the expense, inconvenience, and distraction of further proceedings in the litigation.

WHO IS IN THE SETTLEMENT

4. How do I know if I am part of the Settlement?

If you received this notice, then Defendant's records indicate that you are a Class Member who is entitled to receive a payment.

YOUR OPTIONS

5. What options do I have with respect to the Settlement?

You have three options: (1) do nothing and you will receive a payment according to the terms of this settlement; (2) exclude yourself from the settlement ("opt out" of it); or (3) participate in the settlement but object to it. Each of these options is described in a separate section below.

6. What are the critical deadlines?

There is no deadline to receive a payment. If you do nothing, then you will get a payment.

The deadline for sending a letter to exclude yourself from or opt out of the settlement is [REDACTED].

The deadline to file an objection with the Court is also [REDACTED].

7. How do I decide which option to choose?

If you do not like the settlement and you believe that you could receive more money by pursuing your claims on your own (with or without an attorney) and you are comfortable with the risk that you might lose your case or get less than you would in this settlement, then you may want to consider opting out.

If you believe the settlement is unreasonable, unfair, or inadequate and the Court should reject the settlement, you can object to the settlement terms. The Court will decide if your objection is valid. If the Court agrees, then the settlement will not be approved and no payments will be made to you or any other Class Member. If your objection (and any other objection) is overruled, and the settlement is approved, then you will still get a payment.

If you want to participate in the settlement, then you don't have to do anything; you will receive a payment if the settlement is approved by the Court.

8. What has to happen for the Settlement to be approved?

The Court has to decide that the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate before it will approve it. The Court already has decided to provide preliminary approval of the settlement, which is why you received notice of the settlement. The Court will make a final decision regarding the settlement at a "Fairness Hearing" or "Final Approval Hearing," which is currently scheduled for [REDACTED].

THE SETTLEMENT PAYMENT

9. How much is the Settlement and how much will I be paid?

Defendant has agreed to create a Settlement Fund of $3,700,000.00. In addition, Defendant has agreed to forgive certain Uncollected Fees, as defined in the Settlement Agreement, in an approximate amount of $276,031.

As discussed separately below, attorneys' fees, litigation costs, and the costs paid to a third-party Settlement Administrator to administer the settlement (including mailing and emailing this notice) will be paid out of the Settlement Fund. The balance of the Settlement Fund will be divided among all Class as described in the Settlement Agreement.

10. How much of the settlement fund will be used to pay for attorney fees and costs?

Class Counsel will request an attorney fee be awarded by the Court of not more than one-third of the Value of the Settlement. Class Counsel will also request that it be reimbursed for litigation costs incurred in prosecuting the case. The Court will decide the amount of the attorneys' fees and costs based on a number of factors, including the risk associated with bringing the case on a contingency basis, the amount of time spent on the case, the amount of costs incurred to prosecute the case, the quality of the work, and the outcome of the case.

11. How much will my payment be?

The balance of the Settlement Fund after attorneys' fees and costs, any service award and the Settlement Administrator's fees will be divided among all Class Members in accordance with the formulas outlined in the settlement agreement. Current members of Defendant will receive a credit to their accounts for the amount they are entitled to receive, without having to take any action. Former members of Defendant shall receive a check from the Settlement Administrator, without having to take any action. Current and former members of Defendant who incurred Uncollected Fee shall automatically have such fees waived and forgiven.

12. Do I have to do anything if I want to participate in the Settlement?

No. If you received this Notice, then you will be entitled to receive a payment or forgiveness of charged off fees unless you choose to exclude yourself from the settlement, or "opt out."

13. When will I receive my payment?

The Court will hold a Fairness Hearing on [REDACTED], at [REDACTED] to consider whether the settlement should be approved. If the Court approves the settlement, then payments should be made or credits should be issued within about 40 to 60 days after the settlement is approved. However, if someone objects to the settlement, and the objection is sustained, then there is no settlement. Even if all objections are overruled and the Court approves the settlement, an objector could appeal, and it might take months or even years to have the appeal resolved, which would delay any payment.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT14. How do I exclude myself from the settlement?

If you do not want to receive a payment, or if you want to keep any right you may have to sue Defendant for the claims alleged in this lawsuit, then you must exclude yourself, or “opt out.”

To opt out, you must send a letter to the Settlement Administrator that you want to be excluded. Your letter can simply say “I hereby elect to be excluded from the settlement in the Leslie v. Redstone and Macon v. Redstone class actions.” Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, and email address. Your exclusion or opt out request must be postmarked by [REDACTED], and sent to:

Heather Leslie v. Redstone Federal Credit Union

- AND -

Beverly Macon, et al. v. Redstone Federal Credit Union

Attn:

ADDRESS OF THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR

15. What happens if I opt out of the settlement?

If you opt out of the settlement, you will not give up any of your rights to sue Defendant for the claims alleged in this case. However, you will not be entitled to receive a payment from this settlement.

16. If I exclude myself, can I obtain a payment?

No. If you exclude yourself, you will not be entitled to a payment.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT17. How do I notify the Court that I do not like the settlement?

You can object to the settlement or any part of it that you do not like IF you do not exclude yourself, or opt out, from the settlement. (Class Members who exclude themselves from the settlement have no right to object to how other Class Members are treated.) To object, you must send a written document to the Settlement Administrator at the address below. Your objection should say that you are a Class Member, that you object to the settlement, and the reasons why you object, and whether you intend to appear at the hearing. In your objection, you must include your name, address, telephone number, email address (if applicable) and your signature.

All objections must be post-marked no later than [redacted], and must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator as follows:

SETTLEMENT ADMINSTRATOR
Heather Leslie v. Redstone Federal Credit Union and Beverly Macon, et al. v. Redstone Federal Credit Union Settlement Administrator Attn: [redacted] [redacted] [redacted]

18. What is the difference between objecting and requesting exclusion from the settlement?

Objecting is telling the Court that you do not believe the settlement or any part of it is fair, reasonable, and adequate for the class, and asking the Court to reject it. You can object only if you do not opt out of the settlement. Excluding yourself or opting out is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the settlement, and do not want to receive a payment or release claims you might have against Defendant as alleged in this lawsuit.

19. What happens if I object to the settlement?

If the Court sustains your objection, or the objection of any other Class Member, then there is no settlement. If you object, but the Court overrules your objection and any other objection(s), then you will be part of the settlement.

THE COURT’S FAIRNESS HEARING

20. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The Court will hold a Final Approval or Fairness Hearing at [redacted] on [redacted], 2023 at the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama, Northeastern Division, which is located at 101 Homes Avenue, Huntsville, AL 35801. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate. If there are objections, the Court will consider them. The Court may also decide how much to award Class Counsel for attorneys’ fees and expenses.

21. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. You may attend if you desire to do so. If you have submitted an objection, then you may want to attend.

22. May I speak at the hearing?

If you have objected, you may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing. To do so, you must include with your objection, described in Question 18, above, the statement, "I hereby give notice that I intend to appear at the Final Approval Hearing."

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

23. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Court ordered that the lawyers and their law firms referred to in this notice as "Class Counsel" will represent you and the other Class Members.

24. Do I have to pay the lawyer for accomplishing this result?

No. Class Counsel's fees and costs, as approved by the Court, will be paid by Defendant.

25. Who determines what the attorneys' fees will be?

The Court will be asked to approve the amount of Class Counsel's attorneys' fees at the Fairness Hearing. Class Counsel will file an application for fees and costs and will specify the amount being sought as discussed above. You may review a physical copy of the fee application at the website established by the Settlement Administrator, or by reviewing it at the Records Department of the District Court for the Northern District of Alabama, Northeastern Division, which is located at 101 Homes Avenue, Huntsville, AL 35801.

COURT ORDERED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

You may be a member of the settlement class in Heather Leslie v. Redstone Federal Credit Union or Beverly Macon, et al. v. Redstone Federal Credit Union, in which the plaintiff alleges that defendant Redstone Federal Credit Union (“Defendant”) incorrectly assessed overdraft fees and nonsufficient funds fees from May 5, 2014 to July 1, 2021. Defendant denies that it charged any fees that were not permitted by its contracts with members or were otherwise improper and states that it has entered into this agreement to avoid the cost and inconvenience of further litigation.

If you are a Settlement Class Member and if the Settlement is approved, you may be entitled to receive a cash payment from the $3,700,000.00 fund or your portion of $276,031 in uncollected overdraft or nonsufficient funds fees forgiven, all benefits established by the Settlement.

The Court has preliminarily approved this settlement. It will hold a Final Approval Hearing in this case on [PARTIES TO INSERT DATE]. At that hearing, the Court will consider whether to grant final approval to the settlement, and whether to approve payment from the Settlement Fund of up to $ [REDACTED] one-third of the Value of the Settlement as attorneys’ fees, and reimbursement of costs to the attorneys and the Settlement Administrator. If the Court grants final approval of the settlement and you do not request to be excluded from the settlement, you will release your right to bring any claim covered by the Settlement. In exchange, Defendant has agreed to issue a credit to your account, a cash payment to you if you are no longer a member, and/or to forgive certain overdraft or nonsufficient funds fees.

To obtain a long form class notice and other important documents please visit [PARTIES TO PROVIDE WEBSITE ADDRESS]. Alternatively, you may call [INSERT PHONE #].

If you do not want to participate in this settlement—you do not want to receive a credit or cash payment or the forgiveness of certain overdraft fees and you do not want to be bound by any judgment entered in these cases—you may exclude yourself by submitting an opt-out request postmarked no later than [PARTIES TO INSERT DATE]. If you want to object to this settlement because you think it is not fair, adequate, or reasonable, you may object by submitting an objection postmarked no later than [PARTIES TO INSERT DATE]. You may learn more about the opt-out and objection procedures by visiting [PARTIES TO PROVIDE WEBSITE ADDRESS] or by calling [Insert Phone #].
