A settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit against Receivables Performance Management (“RPM” or “Defendant”) relating to cyberattack against RPM’s computer systems that occurred in or around April 2021 (the “Data Incident”). The computer systems possibly affected by the Data Incident potentially contained personal information of certain individuals. The Plaintiffs claim that RPM was responsible for the Data Incident. RPM denies all of the claims.

WHO IS INCLUDED? RPM’s records show you received a notification from RPM regarding the Data Incident, and, therefore, you are included in this Settlement as a “Settlement Class Member” unless you opt out of the Settlement.

SETTLEMENT BENEFITS. The Settlement provides payments to people who submit valid claims for out-of-pocket expenses and lost time (up to 4 hours at $25/hour) relating to the Data Incident, and for credit monitoring and identity protection services for three years. The Settlement also provides an option for California Settlement Subclass Members to submit a claim for California Statutory Damages Payment of $50. The only way to receive a benefit is to file a claim. To get a Claim Form, visit the website or call [PHONE NUMBER]. The claim deadline is [60 days from Notice Date].

OPT OUT. If you do not want to be legally bound by the Settlement, you must exclude yourself. A more detailed notice is available to explain how to exclude yourself. You must mail your exclusion request, postmarked no later than [60 days from Notice Deadline], to the Settlement Administrator. You cannot exclude yourself by phone or email. If you exclude yourself from the Settlement, you will receive no benefits under the Settlement and will not be legally bound by the Court’s judgments related to the Settlement Class and RPM in this class action.

OBJECT. If you stay in the Settlement, you may object to it by [60 days from Notice Deadline], if you do not agree with any part of it. A more detailed notice is available to explain how to object. You must mail your written objection to the Settlement Administrator, postmarked no later than [60 days from Notice Deadline]. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class.

OTHER OPTIONS. If you do nothing, you will remain in the Settlement Class, you will not be eligible for benefits, and you will be bound by the decisions of the Court and give up your rights to sue Defendant for the claims resolved by this Settlement.

FOR MORE INFORMATION. Please visit the website or call [phone number] for a copy of the more detailed notice. On Month Day, 2024, the Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing to determine whether to approve the Settlement, Class Counsel’s request for attorneys’ fees up to $1,680,000.00 and for a service award up to $2,500 for each of the four Class Representatives. The Motion for attorneys’ fees and expenses and service awards will be posted on the website after it is filed. You or your own lawyer, if you have one, may ask to appear and speak at the hearing at your own cost, but you do not have to. This is only a summary.
