BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why is there a Notice?

The Court authorized this Notice because you have a right to know about the settlement, and all of your options, before the Court decides whether to give final approval to the settlement. This Notice explains the nature of the action that is the subject of the settlement, the general terms of the settlement, and your legal rights and options.

The Honorable Lynn Adelman of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin is overseeing this case captioned as In Re: Knight Barry Title, Inc. Data Incident Litigation, Case No. 2:24-cv-00211-LA. The people who brought the lawsuit are called the Class Representatives. The company being sued, Knight Barry Title, Inc., is called KBT or Defendant.

2. What is the Litigation about?

The Litigation arises from the alleged compromise of personal identifying information (PII or Private Information) of Plaintiffs and Class Members as a result of a ransomware cyberattack Defendant experienced on or about August 15, 2023, or the Data Incident. Plaintiffs and Class Members include current and former clients of Defendant whose Private Information was allegedly compromised in the Data Incident. In response to the Data Incident, Defendant sent a Notice Letter informing affected individuals that their PII may have been compromised.

KBT denies any wrongdoing whatsoever. No court or other judicial body has made any judgment or other determination that KBT has done anything wrong.

3. Why is this a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called “Plaintiffs” or “Class Representatives” sue on behalf of all people who have similar claims. Together, all of these people are called a “Class,” and the individuals are called “Class Members.” One court resolves the issues for all Class Members, except for those who exclude themselves from the Class.

4. Why is there a settlement?

The Court has not decided in favor of the Class Representatives or KBT. Instead, both sides agreed to the settlement. The settlement avoids the cost and risk of a trial and related appeals, while providing benefits to Class Members. The Class Representatives appointed to represent the Class, and the attorneys for the Class, Class Counsel, think the settlement is best for all Class Members.

WHO IS IN THE SETTLEMENT?

5. How do I know if I am part of the settlement?

You are affected by the settlement and potentially a Class Member if you are an individual to whom Defendant sent notice of the Data Incident on or around February 1, 2024.

The Class specifically excludes: (i) all Persons who timely and validly request exclusion from the Class; (ii) the Judge assigned to evaluate the fairness of this settlement; and (iii) any other Person found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be guilty under criminal law of initiating, causing, aiding

7. What does the settlement provide?

The settlement provides the following settlement benefits available to Class Members who submit Valid Claims: (a) Reimbursement of Out-of-Pocket Losses up to $5,000 per individual, subject to an Out-of-Pocket Loss Cap; (b) Pro Rata Cash Payment; and (c) Identity Theft Protection and Credit Monitoring for three (3) years of free identity-theft protection and credit monitoring.

8. What settlement benefits are available under the settlement?

 - Out-of-Pocket Losses are unreimbursed costs or expenditures incurred by a Class Member in responding to notice of the Data Incident. Out-of-Pocket Losses may include, without limitation, the following: (1) costs incurred on or after August 15, 2023, associated with accessing or freezing/unfreezing credit reports with any credit reporting agency; (2) other miscellaneous expenses incurred related to any Out-of-Pocket Loss such as notary, fax, postage, copying, mileage, and long-distance telephone charges; (3) credit monitoring or other mitigative costs that were incurred on or after August 15, 2023 through the date of the Class Member’s Claim submission.
 - Class Members who elect to submit a Claim for reimbursement of Out-of-Pocket Losses must provide to the Settlement Administrator the information required to evaluate the Claim, including: (1) the Class Member’s name and current address; (2) documentation supporting their Claim; (3) a brief description of the documentation describing the nature of the loss, if the nature of the loss is not apparent from the documentation alone; and (4) a verification, stating that the Claim is true and correct to the best of the Class Member’s knowledge and belief.

- Documentation supporting Out-of-Pocket Losses can include receipts or other documentation not “self-prepared” by the Class Member that documents the costs incurred. “Self-prepared” documents such as handwritten receipts are, by themselves, insufficient to receive reimbursement, but can be considered to add clarity to or support other submitted documentation.
- b. *Pro Rata Cash Payments – Class Members may, in addition to making a Claim for reimbursement of Out-of-Pocket Losses, elect to receive a cash payment the amount of which will be determined pro rata to exhaust the Settlement Fund following the payment of any Attorneys’ Fees, Costs, and Expenses and/or Service Awards, Settlement Administration Costs, as well as all Valid Claims for: Out-of-Pocket loss reimbursements, and the cost of Valid Claims for Identity Theft Protection and Credit Monitoring services.

11. What am I giving up as part of the settlement?

KBT and its affiliates will receive a release from all claims that could have been or that were brought against KBT relating to the Data Incident. If you have any questions, you can talk to the law firms listed in Question 17 for free or you can talk to your own lawyer.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you do not want to be part of the settlement, then you must take steps to exclude yourself from the Class. This is sometimes referred to as "opting out" of the Class.

12. If I exclude myself, can I get a settlement benefit from this settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, you will not be entitled to receive any benefits from the settlement.

13. If I do not exclude myself, can I sue the Related Entities for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue KBT and any other Related Entities for any claim that could have been or was brought relating to the Data Incident. You must exclude yourself from the settlement to start your own lawsuit or to be part of any different lawsuit relating to the claims in this case.

14. How do I exclude myself from the settlement?

To exclude yourself, send a request to opt-out or written notice of intent to opt-out that says you want to be excluded from the settlement. Any person who submits a valid and timely request to opt-out will be excluded from the settlement, will not receive the benefits of the settlement, and will not be bound by any of its terms, including the releases detailed in the Settlement Agreement. Any Class Member who does not submit a valid and timely opt-out will be bound by the settlement. You must mail your request to opt-out to the Settlement Administrator postmarked by <<Opt-Out Date>>, to:

15. How do I tell the Court that I do not like the settlement?

You can tell the Court that you do not agree with the settlement, and/or the Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Expenses and/or Service Awards or some part of it by objecting to the settlement. Objections must be (1) mailed, with a postmark date no later than the Objection Date, to Class Counsel and counsel for Defendant; and (2) filed with the Court through the Court's ECF system or submitted to the Clerk of the Court for the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin, at the addresses listed below, postmarked by no later than <>Objection Date>>.

Clerk of the Court	Class Counsel	Counsel for Defendant

- (i) the objector's full name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address (if any);
- (ii) the case name and docket number;
- (iii) information identifying the objector as a Class Member, including proof that the objector is a member of the Class (e.g., copy of the objector's Settlement Notice, copy of original notice of the Data Incident, or a statement explaining why the objector believes they are a Class Member);
- (iv) a written statement of all grounds for the objection, accompanied by any legal support for the objection the objector believes applicable;

16. What is the difference between objecting and asking to be excluded?

Objecting is telling the Court that you do not like the settlement or parts of it and why you do not think it should be approved. You can object only if you are a Class Member. Excluding yourself is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the Class and do not want to receive any benefit from the settlement.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

Questions? Go to www.website.com or call (XXX) XXX-XXXX

17. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

Yes. The Court appointed Nickolas J. Hagman of Cafferty Clobes Meriwether & Sprengel, LLP, Gary M. Klinger of Milberg Coleman Bryson Phillips Grossman, PLLC, and Kevin Laukaitis of Laukaitis Law, LLC, as Class Counsel to represent the Class in settlement negotiations. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

18. How will the Class Counsel be paid?

Class Counsel shall move for an award of attorneys' fees at or below one-third (33.33%) of the Settlement Fund, or approximately $366,630, plus the reasonable litigation expenses actually incurred.

Any such award would compensate Class Counsel for investigating the facts, litigating the case, and negotiating the settlement and will be the only payment to them for their efforts in achieving this settlement and for their risk in undertaking this representation on a wholly contingent basis.

Subject to Court approval, Plaintiffs intend to request Service Awards in the amount of $2,500 for each of the Plaintiffs as a result of Plaintiffs' time and efforts expended on behalf of the Class. Payment of any Service awards that are Court approved shall be paid from the Settlement Fund.

Any Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Expenses and/or Service Award payments must be approved by the Court. The Court may award less than the amounts requested.

THE COURT'S FINAL FAIRNESS HEARING

19. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The Court will hold a Final Fairness Hearing on <<Date>> at <<Time>> CT, at the <<Court Address>>, Room ____ as ordered by the Court. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. If there are timely and valid objections, the Court will consider them and will listen to people who have asked to speak at the hearing if such a request has been properly made. The Court will also rule on Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Expenses and/or Service Awards payments. After the hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the settlement. We do not know how long these decisions will take. The hearing may be moved to a different date or time without additional notice, so Class Counsel recommends checking the Settlement Website www.website.com, or calling (XXX) XXX-XXXX.

20. Do I have to attend the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will present the Settlement Class to the Court. You or your own lawyer are welcome to attend at your expense, but you are not required to do so. If you send an objection, you do not have to visit the Court to talk about it. As long as you filed your written objection on time with the Court and mailed it according to the instructions provided in Question 15, the Court will consider it.

21. May I speak at the hearing?

You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Fairness Hearing. To do so, you must file an objection according to the instructions in Question 15, including all the information required. Your objection must be mailed to the Class Counsel and counsel for Defendant and filed with the Court through the Court's ECF system or submitted to the Clerk of the Court for the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin, at the mailing addresses listed above, postmarked by no later than <>Objection Date>>.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

22. What happens if I do nothing?

If you do nothing, you will not receive any settlement benefits from this settlement. If the settlement is granted final approval and becomes Final, you will not be able to start a lawsuit, continue with a lawsuit, or be part of any other lawsuit against KBT or the other Related Entities based on any claim that could have been or that was brought relating to the Data Incident.
