

What is this lawsuit about? Timothy Miles filed a class action lawsuit against Medcredit, Inc. ("Medcredit"), alleging that it violated the Telephone Consumer Protection Act ("TCPA") by placing calls, in connection with which it used an artificial or prerecorded voice, to cellular telephone numbers assigned to persons who do not have accounts in collections with it. Medcredit denies Mr. Miles's allegations, and denies it violated the TCPA. The court has not decided who is right or wrong. The parties have agreed to a settlement.

Why did you receive this notice? You received this notice because Medcredit's records identified you as a potential member of the following settlement class: "All persons in the United States who (a) received a call from Medcredit, Inc. between December 16, 2017 and July 7, 2022 on their cellular telephone, (b) with an artificial or prerecorded voice, (c) for which Medcredit, Inc.'s records contain a 'WN' designation and an 'MC' and/or 'MD' notation."

What does the settlement provide? Medcredit will establish a settlement fund of $1.95 million. Out of the settlement fund will be paid: (1) settlement compensation to participating settlement class members; (2) an award of attorneys' fees not to exceed one-third of the settlement fund, subject to the court's approval; (3) litigation costs and expenses incurred by class counsel in litigating this matter not to exceed $15,000, subject to the court's approval; (4) costs of notice and administration; and (5) an incentive award to Mr. Miles not to exceed $10,000, subject to the court's approval. It is estimated that each valid claimant will receive between $50 and $100, depending on the number of settlement class members who participate.

What are your legal rights and options? If you fall within the settlement class, you have four options. First, you may timely complete and return the claim form found on the backside of this postcard, or timely submit a claim online at www.MilesTCPASettlement.com, in which case you will receive a proportionate share of the settlement fund after deducting attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses, and will release certain claims you may have against Medcredit. Second, you may do nothing, in which case you will not receive a share of the settlement fund, but you will release certain claims you may have against Medcredit. Third, you may exclude yourself from the settlement, in which case you will neither receive a share of the settlement fund, nor release any claims you may have against Medcredit. Or fourth, you may object to the settlement. To obtain additional information about your legal rights and options, visit www.MilesTCPASettlement.com, or contact the settlement administrator by writing to Miles v. Medcredit Settlement Administrator, P.O. Box 5324, New York, NY 10150-5324, or by calling 833-512-2310.

When is the final fairness hearing? The court will hold a final fairness hearing on [month] [day], 2022, at [time]. The hearing will take place in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri, located at 111 South 10th Street, St. Louis, Missouri 63102. At the final fairness hearing, the court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and, if so, whether final approval of the settlement should be granted. The court will also hear objections to the settlement, if any. The court may make a decision at that time, postpone a decision, or continue the hearing.
