Exhibit C-6

If you purchased PVC Pipe Products, two End-User Class antitrust settlements may affect you.

Philadelphia, Month DD, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- The following statement is being issued by Kroll Settlement Administration LLC regarding In re PVC Pipe Antitrust Litigation.

Settlements have been reached by the End-User Class Plaintiffs in a class action lawsuit called In re PVC Pipe Antitrust Litigation, No. 1:24-cv-07639 (the "Lawsuit"), which is pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois (the "Court") against Pipelife Jet Stream, Inc. ("Pipelife") and Westlake Corporation and Westlake Pipe & Fittings Corporation (collectively, "Westlake" and with Pipelife, "Settling Defendants"). These Settlements apply only to the Settling Defendants and do not dismiss claims against other Defendants in the Lawsuit. End-User Class Plaintiffs allege that Converter Defendants, Defendant Oil Price Information Service, LLC, and their co-conspirators conspired and combined to fix, raise, maintain, and stabilize the price of PVC Pipe Products from September 1, 2017, to June 10, 2026, with the intent and expected result of increasing prices of PVC Pipe Products sold in the United States and its territories, in violation of federal antitrust laws and various state antitrust and consumer protection laws.

If you are a member of either of the End-User Settlement Classes, your rights will be affected by this case.

Who is member of the End-User Settlement Classes?
Members of the End-User Settlement Classes include all purchasers of PVC Pipe Products in the United States and its territories during the period September 1, 2017, through June 10, 2026, who fall into any of the following categories:

(1) All public water systems that purchased PVC Pipe Products for end-use, including in connection with the treatment or supply of water;
(2) All public wastewater systems that purchased PVC Pipe Products for end-use, including for the collection, disposal, or treatment of wastewater;

(4) All purchasers of PVC Pipe Products, who purchased from a seller that purchased the product indirectly from any of the Converter Defendants (or from any of the Converter Defendants' parents, predecessors, subsidiaries, or Affiliates).

What are your options?
The Settlements require Pipelife to pay $15,250,000 and Westlake to pay $79,500,000 to the End-User Settlement Classes, and provide cooperation in the ongoing litigation against the remaining Defendants.

- If you do nothing, you will remain in the End-User Westlake Settlement Class and/or End-User Pipelife Settlement Class and you may be eligible for a future payment after the Court has approved a claim process.
- If you remain in the End-User Westlake Settlement Class and/or End-User Pipelife Settlement Class, you will be bound by the Settlements as they concern the End-User Westlake Settlement Class and/or End-User Pipelife Settlement Class, and you will be eligible to receive a portion of the settlement proceeds in the future. You will not be able to pursue a separate lawsuit on your own against the Settling Defendants about the claims in the Action. You may choose to remain in both the End-User Westlake Settlement Class and the End-User Pipelife Settlement Class; OR you may remain in only one of the two Settlement Classes; OR you may exclude yourself from both the End-User Westlake Settlement Class and End-User Pipelife Settlement Class.

- If you DO NOT want to be a member of the End-User Westlake Settlement Class and/or End-User Pipelife Settlement Class, you must exclude yourself. Your exclusion request(s) must be postmarked no later than Month DD, 2026. You cannot exclude yourself by phone or by email. If you make a proper request for exclusion, you will not be legally bound by the Settlements.
- If you DO want to be an End-User Westlake Settlement Class member and/or End-User Pipelife Settlement Class member and be legally bound by the Settlement but wish to object to (1) one or both Settlements and/or (2) appear at the Fairness Hearing on [DATE], then you must do so by [DATE] in the manner explained in the detailed notice available at www.EndUserPVCLitigation.com. You cannot object to the Settlement(s) if you exclude yourself from the Settlement(s).

  Full instructions on how to exclude yourself or your business are available at www.EndUserPVCLitigation.com.

Do members of the End-User Settlement Classes need to hire a lawyer?

Members of the End-User Westlake Settlement Class and End-User Pipelife Settlement Class are represented by Interim Co-Lead Counsel appointed by the Court, and will not be personally responsible for their fees and expenses; instead, Interim Co-Lead Counsel intend to ask the Court at a later date for attorney's fees, expenses and costs incurred, and service awards for the named End-User Class Plaintiffs. Any attorneys' fees, costs, expenses, and service awards that the Court orders, plus the costs to administer the Settlements, will come out of the Settlement Funds pro rata. When Interim Co-Lead Counsel's motion for fees, costs, expenses, and service award is filed, it will be available at www.EndUserPVCLitigation.com.

You may hire your own attorney, at your own expense. If you hire a lawyer to speak for you or to appear in Court, your lawyer must file a Notice of Appearance.

If there are objections, the Court will consider them at that time.
