What is this lawsuit about? This lawsuit involves a National Collegiate Athletic Association (“NCAA”) rule that previously designated a category of Division I baseball coaches as “volunteer coaches.” The rule, officially found at NCAA Division I Bylaw 11.01.6, was in effect from 1992 until July 1, 2023. Two former Division I baseball volunteer coaches (Taylor Smart and Michael Hacker) brought this case against the NCAA alleging that the rule violated antitrust laws. The NCAA denies all claims in the lawsuit. The Parties have agreed to settle the case at this time to avoid the uncertainty and cost of trial and any potential appeal.

Who is a Class Member? You are affected by the Settlement and potentially a Class Member if you are a person who served as a “volunteer coach” as defined by NCAA Division I Bylaw 11.01.6 in men’s baseball from November 29, 2018 to July 1, 2023.

What are the benefits? The NCAA has agreed to pay a total Settlement Fund of $49,250,000 to settle the case. If you participate in the Settlement, you will receive a share of this money. An expert economist will deduct the following amounts from the Settlement Fund: (i) any Court-awarded attorneys’ fees and costs (estimated to be no more than $16.275 million); (ii) any Court-awarded service awards for the class representatives/named Plaintiffs (which will not exceed $15,000 total); and (iii) the fees and expenses for Settlement administration. The minimum amount to be paid per full academic year per Class Member (before costs and fees) will be $5,000.

How do I get benefits? If you are an eligible Class Member, you will receive your share of money under the Settlement and be bound by the Settlement and its release of claims. To receive a payment, you must go to www.website.com and complete a W-9 form. Payments will be made via check and mailed to you unless you select an electronic payment option by visiting www.website.com. You can update your address or select an electronic payment option on the Settlement website at www.website.com. You have until Month 00, 2025 to do so.

What are my other options? If you Do Nothing, you will receive a payment, but you must complete a W-9 form online. You will be legally bound by the terms of the Settlement, and you will release your claims against Defendant and other Released Parties as defined in the Settlement Agreement. You may Opt-Out of or file an Objection to the Settlement and/or attorneys’ fees, costs, and service awards by <<the response deadline>>. Please visit www.website.com for more information on how to opt-out or object.

Do I have a lawyer in this case? Yes, the Court appointed the law firm of Korein Tillery, LLC and two of its attorneys—Garrett Broshuis and Steven Berezney—to represent you and other Class Members. You will not be charged directly for these lawyers; instead, they will receive compensation from the Settlement Fund (subject to Court approval). If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

The Court’s Final Fairness Hearing. The Court is scheduled to hold a Final Fairness Hearing on DATE at TIME PT, to consider whether to approve the Settlement, the attorneys’ fees and expenses, up to 30% of the Settlement Fund ($14.775 million), plus reimbursement of costs and expenses of approximately $1.5 million, and service award payments of $7,500 to each named Plaintiff. You may appear at the hearing, either yourself or through an attorney hired by you, but you don’t have to attend.
